

Laurie Morvan – Booking EPK

Blues Foundation Award winner Laurie Morvan has built a career playing guitar-driven, rocking blues, with a back pocket full of well-warranted swagger, and songs that reflect true craftsmanship. In an era where fewer and fewer artists are truly aware of (and engage) their audience, she is a true entertainer; a musical ringmaster leading her devastatingly tight band through a myriad of twists and turns with a level of finesse and musical intuition that only comes from years of road work.

Laurie and her band have toured extensively throughout the USA and Canada, along with short stints in Mexico and Europe. They have performed on the main stages of some of the industry's most respected blues festivals, including King Biscuit Blues Festival, Calgary Bluesfest, Magic City Blues Fest, Budweiser Illinois Blues Festival, Thunder Bay Blues Festival, and many others (see more extensive list below).

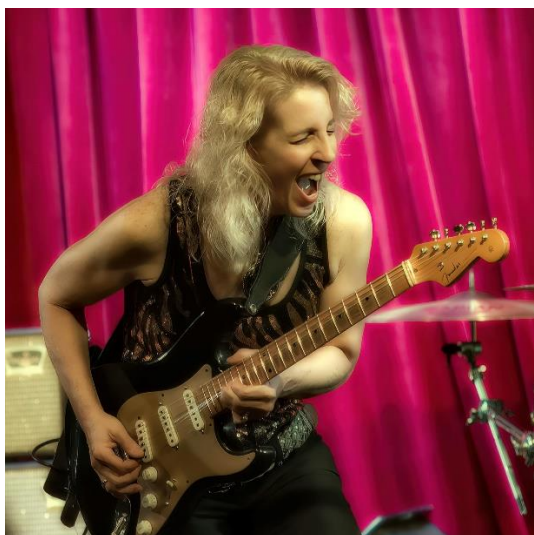

Laurie's live shows feature crowd pleasing originals and tasty covers that shake, shimmy and sizzle with her signature playing and soulful, effervescent style.

Live Show Reviews

"Morvan has all the soulfulness of Bonnie Raitt and the swaggering, muscular guitar tone of Stevie Ray Vaughan." — News Gazette, Champaign IL

"Laurie is one hell of a great guitarist and if you have not had the pleasure of seeing her, put it on your must do list!" — Blues Blast

Her latest CD, Gravity, clocked nearly a year on the Top 50 Blues-Rock Radio Chart and made the 1st Round Grammy Ballot for Best Contemporary Blues Album, along with a nomination for Best Blues Album in the prestigious DownBeat Reader's Poll. All of Morvan's 5 albums have been critically praised, netting an array of awards and nominations, and her fiery stringwork has consistently brought acclaim from some of the world's top guitar magazines.
